Dear Senator Morse:

Thank you for your letter of 19 August to Mr. Dulles concerning [redacted]

This Agency does not have any overseas requirement for employees with [redacted] specialized training and experience. However, from time to time, we do have requirements for headquarters positions for persons with [redacted] qualifications, and should he desire local opportunities,
we would be most happy to consider his application.

Your interest in referring [redacted] to us is appreciated.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Honorable Wayne Morse

Dear Senator Morse:

Thank you for your letter of 19 August 1959 to Mr.
Dulles concerning [redacted]

We have found training and experience in our headquarters installation is important to the success of our employees who are assigned overseas and have accordingly adopted a policy of filling our requirements abroad from among personnel who have served here. Also, our needs for employees in [redacted] [redacted] field to serve overseas are so infrequent that we could not assure him of an opportunity to go abroad even if he were on duty with us. Consequently, while we appreciate his desire to serve abroad, we would not encourage his coming to work with us as a means of reaching that goal.

We shall be glad to consider [redacted] application if he should decide to explore local opportunities.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
